(Andantino con eleganza)

1. Hail Mary! Queen and Virgin meek,
With ev'ry place replete!
Hail kind protectress of the weak,
Behold us at thy feet.
Hail kind protectress of the weak,
Behold us at thy feet.
2. O thou who fill'st the highest place,
Next Heav'n's imperial throne,
Obtain for us each saving grace,
And make our wants thine own.
Obtain for us each saving grace,
And make our wants thine own.
3. How oft when trouble filled my breast,
Or sin my conscience pained,
Through thee I sought for peace and rest,
Through thee I peace obtained.
Through thee I sought for peace and rest,
Through thee I peace obtained.
4. Then hence, in all my pains and cares,
I'll seek for help in thee;
E'er trusting through thy pow'rful pray'rs,
To gain eternity.
E'er trusting through thy pow'rful pray'rs,
To gain eternity.
